EVIDENCE

Shown as roofed building and named on the 1st Edition of OS '6 inch' Map Northumberland Old Series Sheet 59 Surveyed.1862. Extant remains.

DESCRIPTION

The 1st Edition 6 inch map shows a rectangular building with a small [?Garden] enclosure at the NW end. Some of the stone walls survive in present field boundaries, but the overall plan of the original structures appears to have been lost. Old and less regular boundaries of fields surrounding the site appear on the 1862 O.S. map and parts of these are visible on 1974 Air photos.

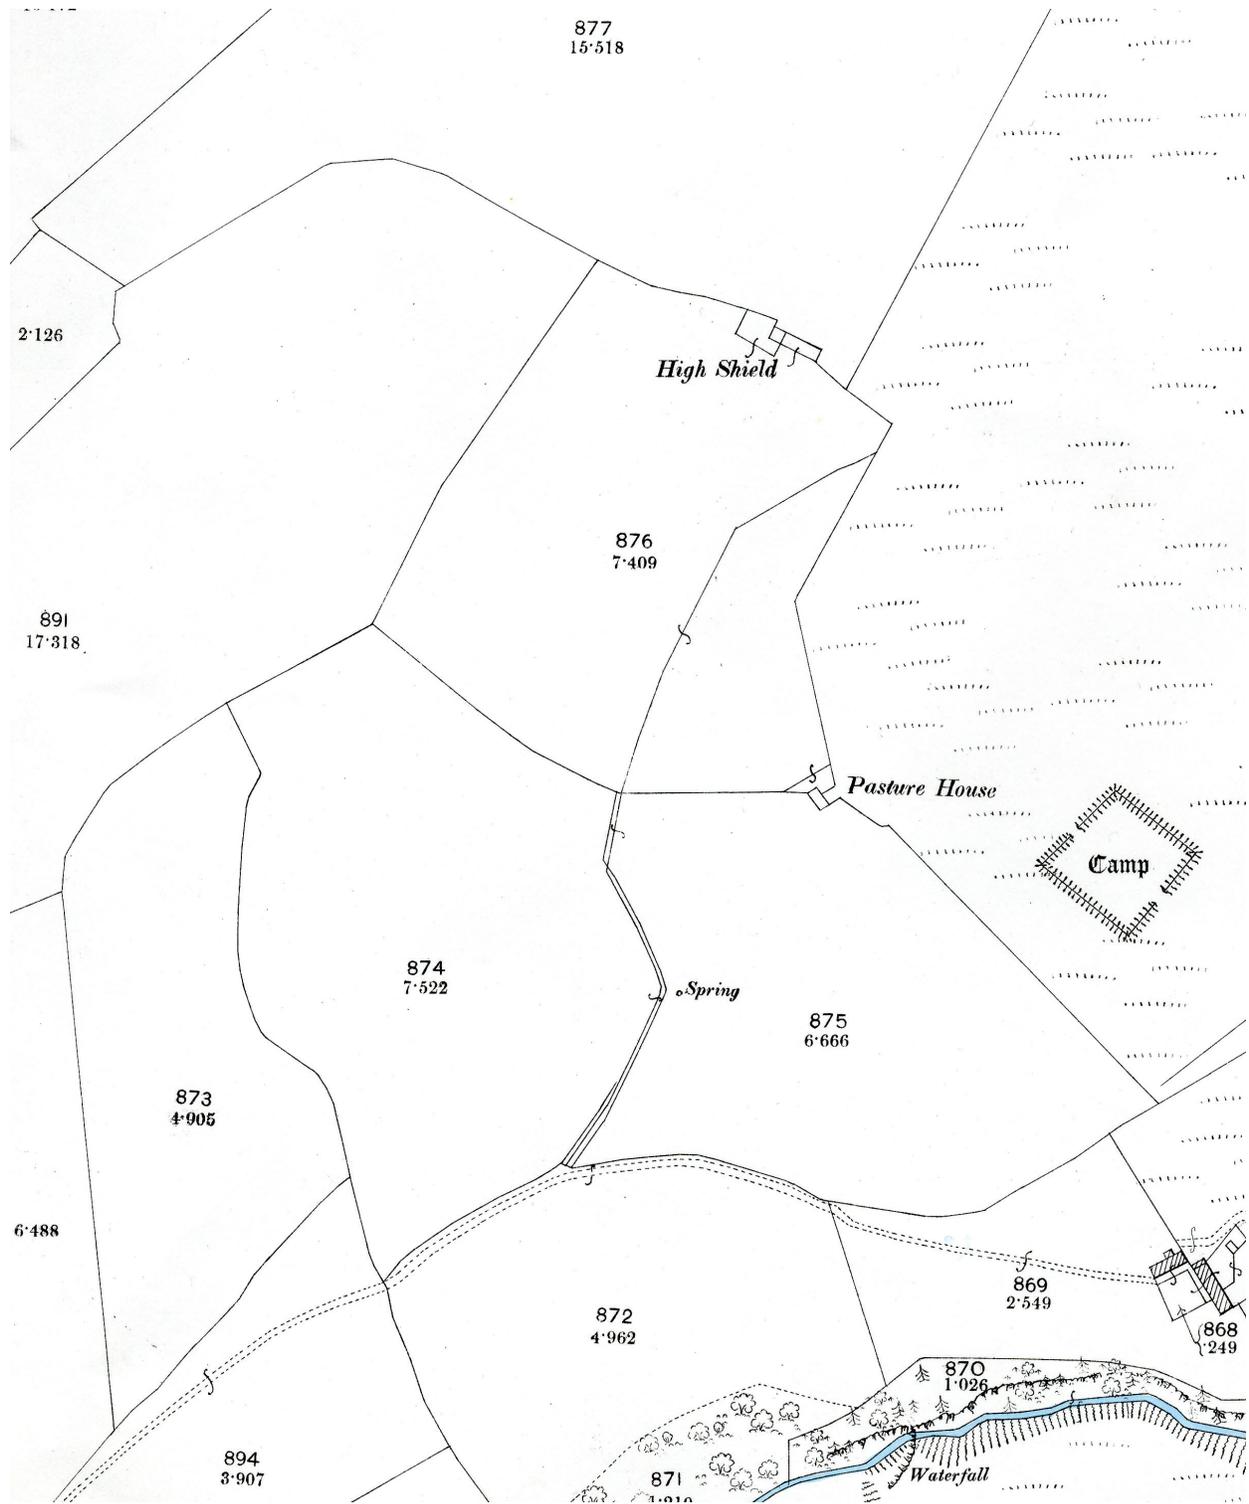

Described in the HVA as "High Shield Farmstead Complex." Linked to Pasture House [A0052] by a hollow way [A0053]
