EVIDENCE

Shown as three buildings on the 1st Edition of OS '6 inch' Map Northumberland Old series Sheet 59 Surveyed in 1862. Shown and named as 'Pele (remains of)' on current 1:10k map. Fragmentary remains of one building.

DESCRIPTION

One end 'bastle' wall without doorway survives, with the outline of a building with narrower walls to the west. This seems likely to be the remnant of the largest of the three buildings shown on the 1862 map. This had a small, possibly garden, enclosure, and was probably the farmhouse. A more detailed survey is needed.

NOTES

The remains of the other two buildings may have been robbed for the renovation of the adjacent Camp Cottage, or other earlier building works.
