EVIDENCE

Site shown and named on 1st Edition of OS ' 1:2500 Plan Northumberland Old Series Sheet 59.11 Surveyed 1862.

DESCRIPTION

The OS plan (above) shows the outline of a small house-sized building apparently roofed and possibly with a small porch on the south elevation, and a smaller roofed building a few metres to the east. Both are within a small enclosure. The site is adjacent to the Thorneyburn Head Dyke (A0202) [hence the name?] and might have been occupied by a shepherd tending flocks on the unenclosed Thorneyburn Common. There may be traces of masonry on the ground.

IMAGES

None.

NOTES

Check OS gazetteer. Census records may give some indication of occupancy after enclosure.
