EVIDENCE

Extant, Shown and named on 1st Edition of OS ' 6 inch' Map Northumberland Old Series Sheet 59, surveyed 1862.

DESCRIPTION

Ford whereby the Thorneyburn Common Enclosure Road crosses the Thorney Burn, although it seems likely that there was a ford at this point before enclosure as there are few points at which the burn can be crossed easily. Advantage has been taken of the bedding planes of a flat-lying sandstone outcrop, there is no evidence of construction. There is a waterfall immediately downstream of the ford.

IMAGES

None.
